

Jobs at Nikonians

Affiliate Program Manager

We are looking for a self-reliant person with good interpersonal communication skills and a sense of Relationship Management. We are offering a long-term career and you will work for our growing network of affiliation partners. The objective of this role is to manage Nikonians' existing affiliation channels such as price comparison sites, product review sites, power-buyer sites and search engines and to find new affiliation opportunities.

The Affiliate Program Manager will be in charge of

- Managing and developing our existing affiliation channels
- Comparing affiliation conditions and prices based on different sources
- Developing our Partners Relationship Management
- Developing and maintaining the main contacts database

Requirements:

- Confidentiality and loyalty
- Self-reliant bright person
- Relationship management experience
- Good organizational skills
- Online or offline sales experience
- Project or team management experience a plus
- Bachelor's degree desirable, suitable also for student with sense of Relationship

Management

- Strong computer skills
- Fluent in English, both in writing and orally
- Part-time job for 4 hrs a day
- Possibility to work from home
- Competitive salary and performance-oriented bonus

What Nikonians offers

Nikonians is looking for people with exceptional skills who thrive in highly energetic, small and focused teams. As a global community, we believe in our ability to enhance the world of photography and imaging. We rely on a team approach that understands the concept of community spirit, creativity and idealism, which amounts to more than the sum of the individual parts themselves.

Contact

We are looking forward getting to know you. Apply today with your detailed Resume at jobs-200605-1@nikonians.org and refer to the job code: APM-NA-200605-1